D.O. from No: 906 of 19.6.08. (1)

Camp Mysore,

No.C.84. 18th June 1908.

Dear Mr. Madhava Rao,

The Mysore Police Bill, a copy of which has been sent with Mr. Balasundram Aiyar's letter No.895, dated 6th May 1908 has been prepared, in my opinion, with great care and its provisions, which have been well thrashed out in the Legislative Council, appear to be well adapted to the present conditions in Mysore. But before submitting it to the Government of India, I should like to anticipate possible criticism by the Legislative Department of the Government of India and to bring the following minor points for the consideration of the Durbar in case they wish to adopt any of them either at the present stage or before the Bill is finally passed by His Highness the Maharaja:-

Clause 26(1) of a draft Bill.

In indicating the several forms of departmental punishments appropriate in the case of Police Officers, the Indian Police Commission, in paragraph 82 of their report, condemned in the infliction of fines on officers of low pay and recommended the imposition of black marks or forfeiture of leave as being more suitable for dealing with delinquencies which do not call for reduction or dismissal. The Government of India have expressed their concurrence in this view. If the Durbar agree, this sub-clause might be recast on the following lines, the necessary consequential amendment, if any, being made in sub-clause (3):-

"26(1) Any officer authorised by sub Section (3) in that behalf may

(a) suspend, reduce or dismiss any Police Officer below the grade of Assistant Superintendent, or

(b) impose on any such Police Officer who is guilty of any breach of discipline, misconduct, or neglect of duty which does not necessitate his suspension, reduction or dismissal or who, by any act of his own, renders himself unfit for the discharge of his duty, any one or more of the following punishments, namely:-

(i) deprivation of good service pay;

(ii) removal from any office of distinction or special emolument;

(iii) entry of a black mark against his name in the manner prescribed by rules made in this behalf;

(iv) forfeiture of leave;

(v) punishment drill;

(vi) extra guard, fatigue or other duty:

Provided that suspension shall in no case be awarded as a substantive punishment and that the punishments mentioned in cluases (iii), (v) and (vi) shall not be imposed on any officer of and above the rank of sub Inspector.

Clause 46(1)(b). Under Sections 38 and 45 orders may be passed by officers other than magistrates, viz., District Superintendent of Police and a Deputy Amildar who may not be a Magistrate for the time being; it seems therefore desirable that the words "by a Magistrate" occurring in this sub clause should be replaced by the words "by competent authority".

Clause 46(3). The word "under" should be inserted between the words 'issued' and 'this' in line 3.

Clause 78. It would be a convenience and in accordance with the form of modern legislation if a clause were inserted to indicate in a general way the important matters in regard to which rules might be framed by Government. The clause might run thus:- "78(1) The Government may make rules to carry out the purposes and objects of this Regulation.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of sub section (1), such rules may:-

(a) regulate the constitution of the Police Force, and the appointment, punishment and dismissal of all officers appointed under this Regulation;

No. 1212
Encl 1

Bangalore,
17th July 1908.

Dear Mr. Fraser

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your D.O. letter No.C.84 dated the 18th June 1908 offering certain suggestions in connection with the Police Bill proposed to be passed by the Durbar.

These suggestions, it is needless to say, have been carefully considered by the Durbar.

So far as regards clause 26(1) of the Bill, the Durbar while accepting black marks, forfeiture of leave &c as suitable forms of punishment in the less serious classes of delinquencies, are of opinion that the omission of fine altogether from the punishments that may be inflicted is not advisable. Very often, the infliction of a fine appeals more forcibly to the offender than a mere black mark would do, and though that kind of punishment should be resorted to only in rare cases, still its entire omission from the list is likely to be somewhat prejudicial to good discipline. In this connection, I may point out that the Police Commission, in para 82 of their Report, did not altogether condemn the system of fine; they merely recommended the introduction of black marks as an alternative punishment for offences which do not call for reduction or dismissal. I forward herewith a copy of clause 26(1) as proposed to be recast.

I may add that the Durbar propose to issue instructions separately to their officers in regard to the indiscriminate fining of men on low pay.

Clause 46(1)(b). As the first part of the clause has the words "Magistrate or other authority", the words "or competent authority" will be added after the word "Magistrate" in clause 46(1)(b).

Clause 46(3). The omission of the word "under" is a printing mistake and has been rectified.

Clause 78. The Durbar think that the preceding clauses of the Bill as drafted indicate sufficiently the matters on which rules have to be framed by Government and that as clause 78 is merely a general provision enabling Government to deal with any matter not specifically referred to in the preceding clauses, no further elaboration of its provision appears to be necessary.

If the Government of India approve of these alterations, they will be moved as amendments brought forward by Government before the Council before the Bill is finally passed into law.

Yours Sincerely

Sd) V. P. Madhava Rao.

Enclosure to D.O. No. 1212 dated 17th July 1908.

Amended clause 26(1).

Clause 26(1). Any officer authorised by sub-section 3 in that behalf may

(a) suspend, reduce or dismiss any Police Officer below the grade of Assistant Superintendent; or

(i) fine not exceeding one month's pay;

(ii) deprivation of good service pay;

(iii) removal from any office of distinction or special emolument;
